Part B - Microsoft Products Purchased

Please select the purchasing options that apply to you.

(If you are making an individual claim, it is unlikely that you purchased software through any of these licensing programs.)

INDIVIDUAL PURCHASERS (CONSUMERS)

- I purchased PC versions of MS-DOS, Windows, Office, Word, and/or Excel (click here to see eligible Microsoft products) between December 23, 1998 and March 11, 2010 (inclusive) outside of Microsoft's volume licensing program through a store or company other than Microsoft.
- I purchased a PC with Microsoft software pre-loaded on the computer, such as MS-DOS, Windows, Office, Word, and/or Excel (click here to see eligible products) between December 23, 1998 and March 11, 2010 (inclusive).

Part C - Proof of Qualification for Consumer Cash Payments

Please read the details below before completing this section:

- I. Complete this section for any eligible Microsoft products not purchased through Microsoft's volume licensing program (including Open, Select and Enterprise Agreement programs).
- II. Proof of purchase or additional verification is not required if your total claim under this Part is for $250.00 CAD or less (required if more than $250.00 CAD).
- III. Complete the table below for each of the eligible Microsoft products listed below that you purchased between December 23, 1998 and March 11, 2010 (inclusive). If you purchased multiple copies, licenses or versions, list each separately.
- IV. Software for server computers or Apple Macintosh computers is not eligible.
- V. Products purchased for resale are also not eligible.
- VI. You may not submit separate claims for the versions of Word and Excel that come with Office; those are included with your Office claim. Only list copies of Word and Excel if you purchased those as standalone products.

Complete the form below for each of the eligible Microsoft products listed below that you purchased between December 23, 1998 and March 11, 2010 (inclusive). Include any software pre-loaded on a PC that you purchased during this time period. If you purchased multiple copies, licenses or versions, list each separately.

If you paid for one (1) Microsoft program that you legally used on two (2) computers, you will need to submit two (2) licenses.
